Secretary Folger Thinking More of Matrimony Than Resignation.

Special to the Cincinnati Commercial.

WASHINGTON, November 27.—Out of a report that Secretary Folger proposed to give up his resignation, the British Legation, on the expiration of his lease, December 15th, grew the rumor that the Secretary had tendered his resignation, to date from December 15th, and that the President had accepted it. It was added that the Secretary had tendered his resignation, to date from December 15th, and that the President had accepted it. It was added that the Secretary had tendered his resignation, to date from December 15th, and that the President had accepted it.

A stalwart friend of President Arthur said to-night: "I have no doubt that Secretary Folger is entirely sincere in saying that he has no present intention of resigning. I have reason to believe that the President, with equal sincerity, has recently expressed a desire that he would resign. Having taken Judge Folger from what was practically a life position, the President does not see how he can with decency show him out in the cold. But he hoped that Folger would resign when he was nominated for Governor of New York, and that on another occasion he was equally hopeful that Judge Folger would accept the mission to England. He would offer him any office in his gift gladly if he thought the old gentleman would give up his present position for it. It looks, however, as if the President would have to wait."

Marshal Henry Talks of Fighting.

Special to the Cincinnati.

WASHINGTON, November 27.—A Star reporter met ex-Marshal Henry walking around the rotunda at the Capitol looking at the paintings.

"Why, Marshal," said the reporter, "I thought you were out of town."

"No," said the marshal, smiling, "I went away after my family, and got back yesterday."

"Was the act on of the President a surprise to you?"

"Hardly; they have been after me for some time, watching my every movement, in order to get something against me, and finally they determined to get rid of me at any rate."

"What do you think of the charges?"

"Simply infamous. They have nothing against me. Why, these two witnesses that I selected voted for conviction."

"Some say you were dismissed because you were a friend of Garfield."

"That seems to be the general impression. I don't know. But they will find that while the friends of Garfield will not whine on account of loss of place, they will not suffer assassination of character. Neither will the people, and it will be found that they have had enough of assassination in every form."

"What are you going to do, Marshal?"

"I am going to-night," was the emphatic response.

The reporter also saw Mr. W. W. Parker, who was highly engaged in the Capitol in the discharge of his duties as officer of the day. He said he did not know that he could do anything more than the letter that he had written. He thought that he had been sacrificed needlessly.

Kansas State Temperance Society.

KANSAS CITY, November 28.—A Journal special from Manhattan, Kan., contains a lengthy circular issued by the central committee of the Kansas State Temperance Society, addressed to the "Friends of Temperance." The circular reviews the conditions which led to the results connected with the late election. It is maintained that the election is not an indication of feeling on the question of prohibition, and numerous arguments are adduced in support of the assertion that the majority of the 183,000 votes recently polled would be cast in favor of prohibition, and they also claim 20,000 votes which, through apathy, were not polled at the last election. Decided steps will be taken in opposition to any attempt to repeal the prohibitory law, and to counteract any efforts which may be brought to bear upon the next Legislature looking to that end. For the purpose of closer organization, and for the revival of temperance sentiment, the committee issues a call for a State meeting at Topeka, for January 9 or 10, next, requesting representation from all societies and churches of the State, the meeting to be non-partisan. Arrangements are made for reduced railroad fares, and vigorous organization is proposed.

Gentlemen—Your Hop Bitters have been of great value to me. I was laid up with typhoid fever for over two months and could get no relief until I tried your Hop Bitters. To those suffering from debility or any one in feeble health, I cordially recommend them.

Continuation of the Jeannette Inquiry.

WASHINGTON, December 1.—The Jeannette board of inquiry to-day put upon examination Seaman Ninderman. He began by expressing the opinion that the vessel was well fitted out for the purposes of the expedition and then proceeded to repeat, in his own language, the history which has already been given by Denenhower and Melville. Several questions were put to learn his opinion as to the wisdom of DeLong's action in entering the pack of ice and upon other points, eliciting the statement that if he (Ninderman) had been in charge of the vessel, and having the same object in view, he would have pursued the same course taken by DeLong. His examination has discovered no new facts so far, but it was not completed to-day.

Fourth, the present ordinance comes into force thirty days after its promulgation.

KELLOGG'S CERTIFICATE.

The Governor Defers Action—Comments of the Press Thereon.

NEW ORLEANS, November 30.—The Picayune's Baton Rouge special says: The Governor has issued a proclamation ordering an election on February 8th for a Congressman in the sixth district, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of General Heron. The Governor has ordered a promulgation of the vote of the third Congressional district without giving a certificate to any one. Kellogg, 1,887 majority. Senator Kellogg has left for Washington. The Picayune, commenting on the withholding of Kellogg's certificate by the Governor, says: "In reality we suppose nobody seriously doubts either that Kellogg is a citizen of this State, or that he was duly elected by the votes of the third district. Every attempt to defeat the will of the people by legal subtleties and flimsy pretenses is a blow at the popular will and a stain upon the honor of the party which makes it."

THROUGH THE HEAD.

MURDER IN A THEATER—A TRAGIC SUICIDE AND HOMICIDE.

CINCINNATI, November 30.—This afternoon at the Coliseum theater in the fourth act of the play, "Si Slocum," Frank Frane, in shooting the apple off the head of "Lucy Slocum," personated by Miss Annie Van Behren, missed the apple and shot Miss Van Behren in the head. Frane used a Stevens rifle, No. 22 calibre, and was executing his backward shot. The catch-snap of the rifle was imperfect and slipped just as the hammer fell, blowing the cartridge shell out backwards.

The Public Schools and the Public Desire.

New York Sun.

Nine-tenths of the children who attend the public schools are sent there solely for the purpose of getting simple elementary instruction. They go to the primary schools to learn their A B C's, to be taught to read and write. They are put in the grammar schools to be grounded in arithmetic, geography and history. That is all the instruction that they have time for, all that can be properly given them in the time they can spend at school, and all they really have immediate need for. The general demand, the vox populi, is for that sort of instruction, and no other. If the attention of the average run of pupils is diverted from these simple elementary and essential branches of study to others which are more ornamental or valuable only as a foundation for courses to be pursued subsequently, their time is so far wasted, and they are defrauded of their right.

All at Once.

Recently a strange horse, of prepossessing appearance, though heretofore unknown, entered the race with the most favorable on the track, and unexpectedly unraveled such marvelous qualities that when he reached the goal, the palm of victory was awarded him, and all (man unwittingly) had to pronounce him without an equal. Such is exactly the case with Foss & Schneider's "Nonpareil" Export Lager, for when it first, and but very recently, was presented to the public, everybody was at once astonished at its unexpected qualities, and all pronounced it never to have been and never to be equaled, and thus the "Nonpareil," after a short, decisive battle, planted its banner of victory on an unsurpassable height. For sale at Chas. Kohlhaas's.

You Don't Say?

Recently quite an interesting occurrence happened here. A pious community earnestly rejoiced over the conversion of a prodigal son, and with breathless attention listened to his solemn promises henceforth to abstain from various beverages, when suddenly one of the members arose and, exceedingly exclaiming: "My good brother, make one exception and drink Foss & Schneider's 'Nonpareil' Export Lager. For sale at Kohlhaas's."

Quite a Compliment.

Being in company with several of our prominent physicians, it was heard remarked that as a stimulant, Foss & Schneider's "Nonpareil" Export Lager could be highly recommended.

To be had at Kohlhaas's.

Orders not promptly filled must be excused, as everybody wants Foss & Schneider's "Nonpareil" Export Lager at once.

It can be found now at Kohlhaas's.
